Circumstances when You are not covered

All insurance policies have exclusions and conditions and You should read the full Policy wording to familiarise Yourself with the full details of these important conditions and exclusions.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into an insurance contract, You have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984(ICA) s.21 and the Marine Insurance Act 1909(MIA) s. 24, 25 and 26 (whichever is applicable) to tell Us pursuant to the ICA: anything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, which may be relevant to Our decision to insure You and on what terms, or pursuant to the MIA: every material circumstance which is known to You or which ought to be known to You which would influence Us in fixing the premium or determining whether to accept the risk.

You have this duty until We agree to insure You. You have the same duty before You renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk We insure You for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- We know or should know as an insurer; or
- We waive your duty to tell Us about.

If You do not tell Us something

Where the Insurance Contract Acts applies: If You do not tell us anything You are required to, We may cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay you if You make a claim, or both.

If Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Where the Marine Insurance Act 1909 applies: If You fail to comply with Your duty of disclosure, We may avoid the contract from its beginning.

Who must tell Us?

You will receive a full refund of the Premium paid provided nothing has occurred for which a claim is payable under the Policy.

PRODUCT DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Cancelling Your Policy

You may cancel Your Policy by giving Us notice in writing. We will refund Premium for each day of the unexpired Period of Insurance, less any applicable minimum premium. This fee will not apply if the cooling off period is activated.

We may cancel only when the law allows Us to do so, and We will allow three business days notice for You to seek alternative insurance or as otherwise required under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth).

We will contact You and advise what to do next. You may be asked to provide documents such as repair/replacement quotations and shipping documents. When You have completed the claim form, answered Our questions and supplied the requested documents We decide the best way to handle the claim, which may be to:

- appoint a surveyor/assessor who will contact You
- repair the damage
- replace the lost/damaged item
- pay You a sum of money.

You need to make Your claim as soon as possible. Any delays may:

- need to inspect damaged items

How We settle a claim

Provided that Our liability shall in no case exceed the Sum Insured or other limits stated in the Policy, in respect of each item of Equipment or any other item insured by the Policy, We will, at Our option:

or
- c) pay You the cost of such replacement or repair,

Automatic Reinstatement of the Sum Insured for Partial Losses

Each claim for loss or damage to Your Equipment reduces the sum insured for such Equipment.

The amount of Premium paid by You for Your Policy includes an amount for GST on the Premium. If You are a commercial entity, You must inform Us of the extent to which You are entitled to an Input Tax Credit for that GST amount each time that You make a claim under Your Policy.

No payment will be made to You for any GST liability that You may incur on the settlement of a claim if You do not inform Us of Your entitlement or correct entitlement to any Input Tax Credit.

Despite the other provisions in this Policy (including provisions in the wordings, Your Policy Schedule or any endorsement) Our liability to You will be calculated taking into account any Input Tax Credit to which You are entitled for any acquisition which is relevant to Your claim, or to which You would have been entitled were You to have made a relevant acquisition.

4. Government Taxes and Duties

You must pay all levies, taxes, imposts and/or charges, including but not limited to stamp duty and other similar charges which may be payable to or required to be paid to any government in Australia whether acting through any agency, instrumentality or otherwise in relation to Your Policy.

5. Notices

Where there is more than one of You, any notice given by Us under Your Policy to any one of You will be deemed to be notice given to all of You.

6. Cancellation

You may cancel Your Policy at any time by giving Us written notification. Where You represent more than one person or entity, We will only carry out this cancellation where a written notification to cancel is received from all parties named in Your Policy Schedule. We may cancel only when the law allows Us to do so, and We will allow three business days' notice for You to seek alternative insurance or as otherwise required under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth). We will refund premium for each day of the unexpired Period of Insurance. The daily premium will be calculated by dividing the premium by the number of days of the Period of Insurance. Some government taxes & duties are not refundable. Commission or fees charged by PPIB may not be refundable.
